

Task-2

Answer:

In order to troubleshoot and resolve the issue of charts not updating in real-time, I'm going to use the `useEffect` use to call the API and use `redux toolkit` for state management. I will check if the component state is being correctly updated and that the chart components receive the updated data for rendering. I will use the correct dependencies for re-rendering the data. Using this we can solve that issue.